MANY SEIZURES ON THE KOREA

INSPECTORS BRING TO LIGHT A QUANTITY OF DUTABLE ARTI-CLES.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—It was a hard day for those who had laid plans to smuggle dutiable goods ashore from the steamer Korea yesterday, and the customs inspectors obtained results for their patient searching of the China liner.

Inspector Sam Sackett was rather the busiest of the searching officers, or, in justice to the others, the most successful. First of all, he held up Wei Foo, a Chinese missionary, as he came down the gangplank to see why he was wearing a silk coat so heavily quilted. The quilting was found necessary for the concealment of six dozen silk handkerchiefs, so the garment, with its "stuffing," was confiscated.
During his search of the cabins Sackett found concealed beneath the drawers in one cabin, which was the special care of a Chinese waiter, two ivory glove stretchers, sixteen ivory picture frames, eight sandal-wood fans, two ivory mirrors, two ivory card cases, one ivory-backed brush, one ivory fan, four ivory combs, two ivory paper cutters, three ivory combination balls, seven ivory elephants, eighteen ivory nail cleaners, one ivory watch chain.

Inspectors E. E. Enlow and Charles J. Benninger, on the same steamer, found nine silk shirtwaist patterns concealed in the baggage, and Enlow, acting alone as a searcher, found nineteen pairs of silk trousers sewed up in a comforter in the possession of a steerage passenger.

Inspector P. O. Huffaker brought to light forty-eight silk handkerchiefs which had been concealed under the double bottom of a box owned by Fung You, one of the Chinese passengers on the Korea. Acting with Inspector John Toland, Huffaker discovered and seized twelve embroidered silk scarfs, eleven silk handkerchiefs and one silk shirt, hidden in the sailors' forecabin.

No opium was found, although a diligent search was conducted for the prohibited drug.

TAFT WINS AT BIG GOLF GAME

FORMER CHAMPION TRAVIS THE PARTNER OF THE CHIEF EXE-CUTIVE.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—With victory perched on his golf stick, President Taft returned late today from the Chevy Chase Club links. Taking Walter J. Travis, the former national and international champion for his partner, the President helped to defeat, by a score of one to the opposing team, composed during the first seven holes of play of General Clarence R.
Edwards, chief of the Insular Bureau of the War Department, and Oden Horstmann, crack player of the Chevy Chase Club. Horstmann's place was taken after the seventh hole by Captain Butt, Horstmann was obliged to drop out because of a wrench to his side suffered several days ago in playing a championship game.

The feature of the game was a remarkable drive made by the President, who, on the eighteenth hole led with a long, straight drive to within three feet of the home green hole.
Hundreds of members of the club who were gathered around the home green applauded the President's extraordinary play. Unfortunately he fooled his putt and made the hole in three.

At the seventeenth hole the President and Travis were two up, but General Edwards and Captain Butt won the eighteenth hole, making the score one up in favor of the President and Travis. The total individual score of Travis was 74 and that of Taft 92.

From start to finish the game was exciting, the two pairs at no time being far apart in their score. It was an exhilarating day, ideal for golf and the President entered with unwonted zeal into the spirit of the game. It was after 7 o'clock tonight when, smiling broadly and telling his golf companions, who accompanied him back to the White House in his big motor car, that he had enjoyed his afternoon immensely. Taft got back to the executive mansion.

TO HALEIWA ONLY.

Or only to Haleiwa, as you prefer.
It is about the only place on this island that maintains a strictly first class hotel at all seasons a hotel for transient and permanent guests where they have an opportunity to get much of "the great outside" and remain healthy or get back their health if they have lost it. The golf links lure players every day because they are delightfully situated and the breeze blows all of the time not strong enough to deflect the ball but enough to keep a player in good humor. St. Clair Bid-good is manager.

As announced in yesterday's Star in advance, a delegation of the Alewa Heights Improvement Club waited on Governor Frear this morning in connection with the water question. The Governor said afterward that if the new pipe cannot be laid this summer, it may be possible to give the people more water through the existing pipe laid by themselves. This will be feasible through working the Makiiki pump longer hours than at present.

At a meeting of the stand pat clubs of the Riverside Baseball League held at the office of A. L. C. Atkinson early this afternoon, practically all of the requests of the Chinese Athletic Club were granted. The C. A. C. asked that the same terms be made to the Japanese A. C., but action on this was deferred. The Chinese A. C. will hold a meeting tomorrow evening to further consider the matter.
